Pre-orders for the Anniversary Release of the War of the Ring Second Edition continues until stock lasts

About 1500 copies have been sold in the initial 48-hours pre-order window. Last 500 copies will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis, until stock lasts.

July 23, 2015 – Players who were not able to pre-order the Anniversary Release of War of the Ring in the 48-hours window has still a chance to get it. The last copies of the print run of 2000 will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis, until stock lasts.

Ares Games has opened pre-orders for the Anniversary Release of War of the Ring Second Edition (English version) on July 20th. A limited print run of 2,000 copies were first announced, but a lot of players were concerned they could miss an opportunity to order the game, and to make sure all interested War of the Ring fans could get a copy, Ares guaranteed that all orders received in the first 48 hours would be serviced, increasing the print run if necessary.

About 1,500 copies were sold in two days, and now the remaining inventory can still be ordered, at the cost of US$ 369.90 (+VAT in the European Union) + Postage & Packing. There's a limit of one copy per customer's address.

Due for release in April 2016, the Anniversary Release of War of the Ring Second Edition will feature a set of 205 figures, hand painted in a high quality style; a hot-foil stamped game board, about 20% larger than the normal board included in Second Edition; a unique hardcover strategy guide, the "War of the Ring Companion", written by Kristofer Bengtsson and featuring beautiful artwork by John Howe. The game board, cards and rules will be updated to reflect all the changes introduced by the Second Edition and to incorporate the latest rulings and frequently asked questions.
